Dear Mr. Yendall,
We have been
following your brave stand
in our papers here.

There is not much we can say, but just kept up
the good job you have been doing no matter
how hard it is for
you, because not only
are you doing it for your own future, but also for the future Negro's who wish to study at the University.

We here in N.Z. are amazed at the way
some of the American's cheat the Negro's.

Last year there was a young Negro working down here in our town on the Wharf, to save money to study Medicine, he was amazed, he could walk down the street, drink in the saloons and was treated like a human, he couldn't understand it. And why shouldn't he, why are all dark people treated the same. I have dark skinned people among my best friends, they are married into our family & they are fine people.

I am not very good at writing letters but,

I just wanted you to know, that we are thinking of you & your family and, wish you
all the very best.

I remain

Yours faithfully.

B. Carter.

Truth says...

- The police are trying the foolish old game of attempting to muzzle the Press.

- Chief-Superintendent W. R. Fell should think humbly about the failures to solve recent major crimes before he worries about matters like banning the Press from photographing Gorman's extradition.

- The people of New Zealand are getting fed up with the misplaced zeal and inept bungling of some of the police force.

THAT

- It salutes two courageous Americans:

- Commander Walter Schirra for his heroic flight in space.

- Negro ex-serviceman and student, James Meredith, for his heroic stand for racial equality in Oxford, Mississippi.
